HE FELL TO HIS DEATH.

The Fate of Joseph Grammer a Plumber.

ACCIDENT CAUSED BY THE BREAKING OF A LADDER.

His Skull Fractured—Died at St. Mark's Hospital Soon Afterwards—Was a Single Man.

Joseph Grammer, a plumber living at Seventh South and Tenth East streets, fell from a ladder which had been reared in front of P. J. Moran's store on Second South street, where he was doing some repair work. His skull was fractured by the fall, and at 1 o'clock he died at St. Mark's hospital. Grammer was an employee of Schoppe & Co., and at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, in connection with Mr. Klink, was working on an eyespout extension at the height of one story. The ladder on which he was standing suddenly broke just above him and he fell head foremost to the asphaltum

DEATH OF MRS. BAMBERGER.

Stricken With Paralysis Sunday Evening and Died Yesterday.

Mrs. Herman Bamberger died yesterday evening after an illness of less than a day. She was, without warning, stricken with paralysis at 9:30 on Sunday evening. The attack affected her right side the most and was so severe as to deprive her of speech and consciousness. Mrs. Bamberger and her husband were summoned to restore her to consciousness, but without avail. She remained in a comatose state till last evening, when the vital spark went out. The call was terribly sudden. Mrs. Bamberger had been out to the Lagoon with a party of friends during the afternoon of the day on which she was taken ill and appeared to be in her usual good health. After returning home she sat up for supper and there was no indication of illness until the fatal attack came in its awful suddenness. The sorrowing husband, family and friends have the sympathy of the community. Notice of the funeral appears elsewhere.

A GREAT SLAUGHTER IN PIANOS.

We have got to raise some money and it must be raised from sales of pianos. Hence the following reduction in prices:
 One piano worth $200 for only $150
 One piano worth $250 for only $175
 One piano worth $300 for only $200
 One piano worth $350 for only $225
 One elegant new upright piano worth $400 for only $250
 One elegant new upright piano worth $450 for only $275
 One elegant new upright piano worth $500 for only $300
 One elegant new upright piano worth $550 for only $325
 The above prices are considerably less than the first cost at the manufacturer. We have more than 75 new pianos in stock and store rooms, all of which we are going to offer at correspondingly low prices. For the next five days only, if you contemplate the purchasing of a piano within the next two years it will pay you to inspect our stock. Our pianos are all standard makes, before buying you should decide on whose judgment you will buy your piano, and bring the parties with you. We will with pleasure show you our full line of pianos, explain their merits, and if you are not satisfied that you will save from 25 to 40 per cent on the prices we quote you, from those quoted you any place in Utah, we will not ask your trade. Come early while our assortment is complete. This great sacrificing sale will be for five days only, beginning Tuesday, August 2, 1917. Don't be persuaded to buy until you have examined our stock.
